Madeline E. Portzline

Description

Madeline E. Portzline earned her bachelorâ€™s degrees in English and comparative literature from the Pennsylvania State University and her J.D. from the University of Michigan Law School. While at Michigan, she served as managing production editor for the Michigan Journal of Gender & Law and a senior editor for the Michigan Journal of Law & Society. She spent a year working as a student attorney in the Pediatric Advocacy Clinic, as well as a summer as a student attorney with the Workersâ€™ Rights Clinic. Madeline is currently clerking for the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals and is scheduled to return to the firm in 2027.

Madeline has a passion for advocacy and is excited to channel that passion into her work with Hooper Hathawayâ€™s litigation practice. Outside of the office, Madeline enjoys challenging herself with new recipes, exploring Ann Arbor, and spending quality time with her friends and family.
