William M. Beuche

Description

William M. Beuche is a member of the firmâ€™s corporate and transactional practice, advising clients as they navigate a wide range of complex business and legal issues. His practice specialties include mergers and acquisitions, corporate and commercial law, and real estate development and transactions.

In addition to his legal practice, Mr. Beuche is an active member of the community. He currently serves on the Board of Directors of Emerson School and has volunteered for numerous other organizations throughout the community.

Education

- Emory University School of Law, J.D.
- Kalamazoo College, B.A.

Admissions

- Michigan

Â© 2023 Hooper Hathaway Price Beuche & Wallace